As our peripatetic staff are self-employed they set their own hourly rates. The current rate for individual music tuition varies between £150 - £190 per term (10 x 30 minute lessons).

You will be invoiced direct for these lessons by the teachers. Because of the different length of terms, students may receive sometimes more/ fewer lessons in a term. The invoices are then altered accordingly.

Written notice of either a term or half a term will be required to terminate lessons as specified in the terms set by each peripatetic staff member.
