Trunks Across the Thames - Juniors Baby Elephant - Clarence

As part of their Centenary celebrations (1926–2026), Maidenhead Rotary Club has donated £1,300 to Thames Valley Hospice through the Trunks Across the Thames fundraising event. Our pupils helped to decorate a baby elephant sculpture, which will be displayed publicly at Maidenhead Library (see photo below) from 4–11 June 2026.

Claire's Court Junior and Nursery pupils decorated our baby elephant using pupils' thumbprints in school uniform and house colours: Winton (Yellow), Astor (Blue), Grenfell (Green) and Spencer (Red), celebrating our shared community.

The jhul was crafted from recycled uniforms, adding a meaningful, sustainable touch. We named our elephant Clarence, inspired by Claires Court, a name that means bright and clear.
