

8 September 2023 (Autumn Term Week 1)

Welcome back everyone! It was so lovely to see you all after our break. We have some new families joining our Nursery and I know you will join me in welcoming them all to Claire's Court.

This is our weekly bulletin which will be sent out from myself, Tara Ainsley, every Friday, from the school office. In it will be weekly photos, celebrating what the children have been doing.

I will also occasionally include relevant information, articles or links to websites to help parents navigate the early years.

This week has been simply giving the children the opportunity to settle in or back into their routine. They have been able to see their friends again or meet their new teachers and class groups and learn their way around the nursery. This in itself is huge for children of this age and the staff are aware of this and so for this reason, the first few days/week are relaxed to enable the children to form an attachment with their key workers.

Below, I have added a few pictures from this week, showing you a snapshot of what they have been doing.
