Weekly Bulletin

29 September 2023 (Autumn Term Week 4)

On Tuesday, we celebrated Harvest with the children gathering together for some singing and dancing. We looked at photos and discussed the importance of helping others and sharing the food which we have. Their understanding and empathy was fantastic for such young children.

The Hans Christian Andersen story of The Ugly duckling was the focus story for the three and four year olds this week. The children have explored feathers and emotions and have been creating ducks and swans.

Nursery PE

This week in PE the children were able to develop their coordination and stamina by exploring the whole school. They went upstairs, downstairs and in a variety of different areas. They even popped in to see Helen in the front office and the nurses in their room.

Forest School

Mr P took the children into The Thicket where they could run up and down the slopes, climb and balance on the fallen trees and find natural materials to create with.

2 year olds

The Little Red Hen was the focus story in this room this week. The children chose colours to paint characters from the book and explore farm animals and various grains that grow.
