Weekly Bulletin

07.11.25 - Autumn Term - Week 8

Principal's Blog

The Independent Schools Inspectorate's report on their visit to Claire's Court last month is to be published next week. We are delighted that the report fully captures the strengths, breadth and depth of the school's achievements, and we look forward to sharing it with you as soon as possible thereafter. Please read the latest blog from Mr Wilding here, "The proof that Life imitates Art - Government policy meets Celebrity Traitors"

Welcome back to all those families who had the chance for some rest and relaxation over the half term. Our two years old were still very busy which you can see more of later on in this bulletin.

This week, the Beehive class has been enjoying activities linked to Bonfire Night.

Forest School

At Forest School this week aside from exploring, the children were tasked with finding natural materials which they could combine with the paint and create with.

Bumble Bees

Last week, the Bumble Bees read Room on the Broom. This then developed into potions and spells and a love of witches.

This week the children have been looking out for Goldilocks and the Three Bears.
